

House Resolution No. 1889

Whereas, it is with utmost respect that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause in their daily legislative endeavors in order to recognize those Show-Me State youths who truly embody the concept of “Outstanding Missouri Student” through their deeds and achievements; and

Whereas, Nick Moore of Hillsboro, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as a second-grade student at Grandview Elementary School in the Hillsboro R-III School District; and

Whereas, on Thursday, April 22, 2004, Nick Moore will meet with state legislators in the Missouri House of Representatives to receive well-deserved honors and accolades for the exemplary role he has performed in Missouri as a student leader; and

Whereas, Nick Moore has successfully challenged himself academically in the areas of mathematics, mental math, oral communication, and language; and

Whereas, Nick Moore has developed and maintained an exceptional reputation for making friends easily, treating others with kindness and respect, and helping teachers or fellow students; and

Whereas, Nick Moore plays first base on a baseball team and guard on a basketball team; helps with his young cousins; rides in his dad’s dump truck so he can help push the buttons; and is a member of Morse Mill Baptist Church, where he participates in Sunday school and Vacation Bible School;

Whereas, Nick Moore plans to be an architect when he grows up so that he can design new houses; and

Whereas, Nick Moore is the son of Debby and Derrek Moore of DeSoto; the brother of Erika; the great-grandson of Geneva Young; and the grandson of Walden Moore, Sharon Moore, Louise Reed, and Jim Reed, with whom Nick loves to fish and share a special handshake first taught to him by Papa Fuzzy, now deceased:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Nick Moore as an “Outstanding Missouri Student” and to extend to him this legislative body's most heartfelt welcome to the state capitol on April 22, 2004, for special recognition as a guest in the House Chamber; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of "Outstanding Missouri Student" Nick Moore of Hillsboro, Missouri.
